Clark (Yi-Chen) Hsu

Yi-Chen Hsu (Clark) MA, is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, clinician, program developer, consultant, professor and speaker. He holds a master's degree in Counseling Psychology with a specialization in Expressive Arts from the California Institute of Integral Studies. He is also a Registered Expressive Arts Therapist certified by International Expressive Arts Therapy Association (IEATA).

Clark offers group counseling, workshops, classes, and talks for audiences in the United States, China, and Taiwan. He also organizes Expressive Arts training and teaches related courses. A former IT professional, Clark seeks to find integration through creative ways, bridging Eastern Tradition (Taoism, Tibetan Buddhism, and Confucianism) with Western Psychology with a sprinkle of technological knowledge.

His aim is to promote an integrative model that utilizes all spectrums of encounter to hold and nurture human experience and transformation.
